

People often say it's hard to find female (identifying) speakers for sports analytics clubs, seminars, conferences, etc. So I crowdsourced on twitter & came up with this list. Inclusion in the list is not a personal endorsement & exclusion is not a critique, it's just a public list from which one can search through to find ideas for speakers. Please feel free to let me know of others you believe should be on the list, but I'd prefer that they are a professional sports analysts using advanced statistics, mathematics, AI, or data science.
